

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Aviation Administration

Office of the Assistant Administrator for Policy,
Planning, and International Aviation

800 Independence Ave., S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20591

December 7, 1999

Dear Challenger Session
Participant:

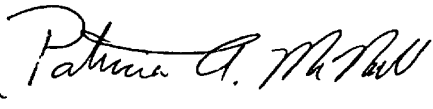

Enclosed, as promised by Federal Aviation Administrator Jane Garvey one week ago today, is a package with the detailed results of the November 30 Challenger Session in which you participated.

As the summary of the evaluation forms you filled out indicates, it was a very good session. We at FAA think it was one of the best dialogs, with the most substantive comments, in a number of years.

This session, however, is only a start. The Administrator and her Management Board have already talked about how FAA will proceed to respond to your comments. We said we would give you a reasoned response in a month, and we will deliver by the end of the year.

After that, it is up to all of us to work together and keep the commitments we have made. In the Challenger Session you stressed partnership more often than any other concept. That partnership will be the key to making the positive changes we have discussed. We at FAA look forward to working with you on a better aerospace system.

Sincerely,

for

David Traynham
Assistant Administrator for Policy, Planning, and International Aviation

Enclosure